

CHAM PROMOTES LOCAL EMPLOYEE

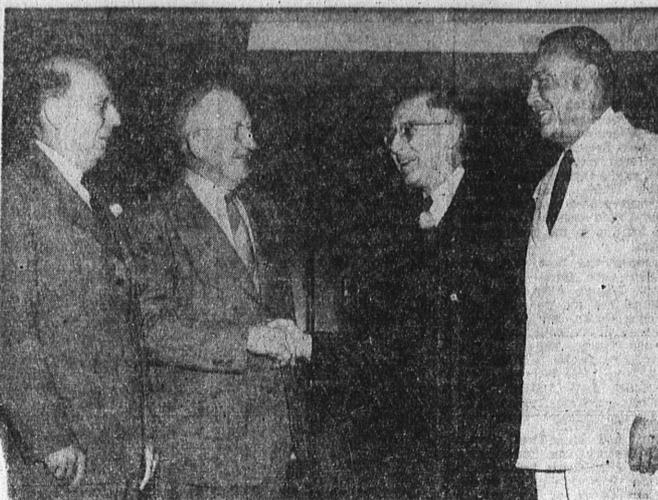

Bill Shaner, an employee of years, this week was promoted by the food store chain and A&P Market here for five transferred to its LaJolla store. Shaner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaner of 1622 Crimshaw boulevard, will be in charge of the market's produce department. He is a 1945 graduate of Torrance High School.

Blind Aid Fund Campaign Started

National Brotherhood Days will be observed locally tomorrow and Saturday. The annual drive for funds is directed toward aiding the blind. According to Mrs. Elsie Smith, who will be in charge of a booth at the Civic Auditorium, money collected during the campaign is to be used for the purchase of seeing-eye dogs and surgical treatment for the blind.

GAIN RECORDED

Total employment in Los Angeles county increased to 1,601,300 in July of this year, a gain over May, according to the State Department of Employment. Employment in shipbuilding, non-electric machinery, and wholesale and retail trades was down, but seasonal gains in agriculture, construction and wearing apparel trades offset these losses and established a gain of 6100 employed persons.

UP FROM THE RANKS . . . Robert L. Minckler, president of the General Petroleum Corporation (dark suit) accepts congratulations from the man who hired him 25 years ago this week. Shaking hands with Minckler is Wesley Cunningham, now treasurer and comptroller of the oil company, who hired Minckler as accountant in 1924. He rose to assistant to the president in 1947. On hand for the presentation of a diamond service pin were P. S. Magruder (left) and Clarence Beesmyer, both executive vicepres.

Child Cyclist Hit by Auto

Eight-year-old Judith Ann Nalorski Sunday evening was treated for minor injuries sustained when she rode her bicycle into the path of an automobile at the corner of Robert road and Linda drive.

The child, who lives at 5447 Linda drive told, police she saw the car approaching the intersection but thought "she could get by in time." Driver of the car, Carl R. Hall, 36, of Redondo Beach, was not held.

Torrance High Grad in Japan

Private Jesse N. Ray, son of Mrs. G. A. Ray, 23047 Narbonne Avenue, Torrance, is now participating in rifle firing exercises at Camp Palmer, Japan, location of the Eighth Cavalry Regiment's rifle range. He will be there for about 20 days, and will fire many types of small infantry weapons.

Entering the army in January, 1949, Private Ray received his basic training at Fort Ord, California.

A former student of Torrance High School, Private Ray is assigned to Company F, Eighth Cavalry Regiment, as company sign painter.
